Re: United States v. I. Lewis Libby

Dear Counsel:

This letter is in response to your letter of January 5, 2006. We incorporate the prior responses in our letters of December 3, 2005, and January 9, 2006. This follows our telephone conference of January 18, 2006.

As a preliminary matter, your letter indicates a belief that it is "very common" in the District of Columbia to engage in "open file" discovery, but my understanding is to the contrary. To my understanding, "open file" discovery is not common in that district, nor in the Department of Justice more broadly. That is particularly the case where the matter involves extensive classified and national security materials. Moreover, it is not the ordinary practice for federal prosecutors to provide discovery in a perjury/obstruction of justice prosecution as to all matters that were considered but not charged in the overarching grand jury investigation, particularly one that is ongoing. As you are aware, your client has not been charged with a substantive violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 793. Accordingly, your client is not entitled to discovery of sensitive national security materials pertinent only to a prosecution of a substantive violation of that statute.

In any event, the fact that we have not elected to provide you with everything the defense has requested should not obscure the fact that the defense is being given far more discovery than is required by the language of Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. To cite but one example, we are making available to you all material obtained from the Office of Vice President: in essence, "open file" discovery regarding the office where your client was employed. We have endeavored to draw a line that expedites resolution of this matter while at the same time safeguarding other governmental interests and the ongoing investigation. In making discovery determinations, we have endeavored to provide no preferential treatment of Mr. Libby solely on account of his former official position.

I note that our January 18, 2006, telephone conference was productive in achieving a clearer understanding of the areas where we disagree which will lend itself to presentation to the court for resolution. We also agreed during the telephone conference that if we decided to produce any items to you despite our belief that we were not required to do so that you would not view such production as a waiver of our position that such discovery was not required or argue that such a production was a concession that we were obligated to produce any additional documents that may be in the possession of other government agencies.

In your requests, you greatly expand the sweep of subsection 16(a)(1)(E) which governs "documents and objects" by making requests for "information," rather than "documents and objects," and by defining documents "material to preparing the defense" to include memos, recordings and transcripts in a manner which would sweep in grand jury minutes and reports of interview (most commonly reports of interview in the form of FBI form 302's) . That is flatly inconsistent with the narrower category of "documents and objects" set forth in subsection 16(a)(1)(E) and is contrary to both subsection 16(a)(2) which says that reports and government memoranda (prepared by an attorney or agent) are not discoverable, and to subsection 16(a)(3) which limits grand jury transcript discovery to the defendant's grand jury testimony. To define "documents" to include grand jury transcripts and debriefing reports would contravene the Jencks Act and the enumerated provisions of Rule 16. Thus, in reviewing our response, you should understand that, unless specified otherwise below, we are not producing such grand jury transcripts or FBI 302's or other reports, as they are not required to be produced pursuant to Rule 16.

We respond in greater detail to your enumerated requests as follows:

(1): You demand access to all documents referencing Mr. Wilson's 2002 trip to Iraq. The relevance of Mr. Wilson's 2002 trip is the fact that it occurred and that it became a subject of discussion in spring 2003. What took place during that trip is not relevant to the issue of whether Mr. Libby lied about his spring 2003 conversations with various reporters and government officials about Mr. Wilson's wife's employment at the Central Intelligence Agency ("CIA"). Thus, a request for every document which in any way relates to Mr. Wilson's trip and any communications Mr. Wilson had with anybody at any time about the trip is over broad and any attempt to comply with such a request would significantly delay, not expedite, resolution of this matter. Nonetheless, all documents in our possession reflecting conversations involving defendant Libby about Wilson's trip, or meetings Mr. Libby attended during which Mr. Wilson's trip was discussed, have been produced or will be produced prior to February 3. Moreover, when you review the materials in our possession which we have produced or will be producing to you, specifically including the copies of all documents obtained from the Office of Vice President and the materials from our set of documents obtained from the Central Intelligence Agency ("CIA"), you will note that they include substantial materials which concern or reflect Mr. Wilson's trip.

(2): We do not have any responsive materials other than material that would be produced pursuant to the Jencks Act if the Government were to call Mr. Wilson to testify at trial, which we do not expect to do. You are obviously aware that Mr. Wilson has made public speeches; written an Op Ed in the New York Times, published a book and has been interviewed by media.

(3): As set forth in our prior correspondence, we will not produce every document related in any way to Ms. Wilson's employment, nor is Mr. Libby entitled to every document that might reflect on the damage to national security from disclosure of her employment. However, as we discussed during our telephone conference call on January 18, we intend to address the matter of the use, relevance and admissibility of information concerning Ms. Wilson's employment at the CIA in the context of the Classified Information Procedures Act ("CIPA").

(4): While we do not believe we are required to do so, we will advise you of certain information responsive to your request by letter on or before February 3.

(5): As we previously advised you, we have no formal damage assessment in our possession but, as we discussed during our telephone conference call on January 18, we intend to address the matter of the relevance and admissibility of Ms. Wilson's employment at the CIA in the context of CIPA.

(6) (7) and (8): Aside from any Jencks Act material which will not be produced as discovery, all responsive documents have been produced to you or will be produced to you on or before February 3. As we noted during our conference call, we do not agree that you are entitled to all such materials or that the scope of your request is proper but you are receiving all responsive documents in our possession. We also advised you that when gathering materials during the investigation we did not focus our searches on a topic as broad as that set forth in the request in 7(e).

(9): This request in effect seeks discovery concerning any other subjects of the ongoing investigation. We have not produced, and do not intend to produce, all documents regarding contacts between government officials other than Mr. Libby and reporters prior to July 14, 2003, but have produced (or will produce before February 3) all documents reflecting contact between Mr. Libby and reporters responsive to this request. Lest there be any doubt, we do have some documents responsive to your request which we are electing not to produce because we do not agree that we are obligated to provide them.

(10) and (11): Aside from any Jencks Act material which will not be produced as discovery, all responsive documents have been produced to you or will be produced to you on or before February 3.

In your section entitled "Information Relating to the Government's Investigation of the Media," you assert that the government takes the position that the defense is not entitled to receive in discovery the contemporaneous notes made by the reporters who spoke to Libby, but do not note that you have been provided with all notes in the government's possession that were made by reporters when speaking to Mr. Libby. (As discussed above, the Government has declined to provide notes of conversations between reporters and other government officials.) You elsewhere stated that we declined to provide "any" information about reporters when in fact we have produced documents obtained from media entities as you elsewhere acknowledge.

(12) - (16): While we do not intend to provide discovery in this regard, and while not required to do so, in order to expedite litigation of this matter we advised you during the January 18 conference call that we were not aware of any reporters who knew prior to July 14, 2003, that Valerie Plame, Ambassador Wilson's wife, worked at the CIA, other than: Bob Woodward, Judith Miller, Bob Novak, Walter Pincus and Matthew Cooper.<sup>1</sup> There are published accounts of when Ms. Miller and Mr. Cooper first learned about Mr. Wilson's wife and from whom. Mr. Woodward has publicly described his conversation with Mr. Libby on June 27, 2003, as well as the general timing ("mid-June") of his conversation with another unnamed government official with whom he then spoke about Mr. Wilson's wife. Mr. Woodward has also described his conversations in 2003 and later with Mr. Pincus on the subject. Mr. Pincus has published his account of when he first learned information about Wilson's wife from a source he does not name. Mr. Novak has published his account of when he learned about Wilson's wife (some time after July 6) without naming his sources in the account.

We also advise you that we understand that reporter John Dickerson of Time magazine discussed the trip by Mr. Wilson with government officials at some time on July 11 or after, subsequent to Mr. Cooper learning about Mr. Wilson's wife. Any conversations involving Mr. Dickerson likely took place in Africa and occurred after July 11.

We note that we understand from our January 18 telephone conference that the requests numbered 13 and 14 were intended to be requests limited to the time frame prior to July 14, 2003.

We otherwise are not producing documents responsive to your request concerning other officials who were in contact with other reporters, as outlined above.

In addition, you seek miscellaneous items for discovery in an effort to prepare motions. While we do not agree that there is a separate entitlement to discovery in order to facilitate motions which may or may not be well grounded, we advise you of the following in response to your enumerated requests:

<sup>1</sup> This statement is not meant to imply that each and every reporter named knew her name prior to July 14, 2003.

(17): We are reviewing the CIA referral document and will either produce the same to you or advise you otherwise shortly. We do not intend to produce "all documents relating to" that referral document as that could potentially implicate all documents in this investigation.

(18): We are seeking to obtain a copy of the order empaneling the grand jury public which we did not have in our possession and will either produce the same to you or advise you otherwise shortly.

(19)-(22): We will be providing to you prior to February 3 copies of subpoenas and pertinent correspondence relating to reporters referenced in the Indictment and/or whom we expect to call at trial.<sup>2</sup> We are specifically withholding subpoenas (and correspondence) which were addressed to reporters whose testimony was directed towards government officials other than Mr. Libby.

The Requests for Asserted "Brady" Material

We recognize that your requests for discovery seek the categories of items requested both pursuant to Rule 16 as well as pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) and Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972). We do not agree, however, that each of your requests is appropriate under the governing standards nor, as discussed in prior correspondence, do we agree with your implicit view that we are aligned with all government agencies for purposes of discovery.

(A): We are aware of our Brady and Giglio obligations regarding witnesses and will comply with those obligations.

(B) and (C): We do not agree that if there were any documents indicating that Ms. Wilson's employment was not classified during the relevant times that any such documents would constitute Brady material in a case where Mr. Libby is not charged with a violation of statutes prohibiting the disclosure of classified information.<sup>3</sup>

(C): We do not agree that if there were any documents indicating that Ms. Wilson did not act in an undercover capacity or did not act covertly in the five years prior to July 2003 (which we neither confirm nor deny) that any such documents would constitute Brady material in a case where

<sup>2</sup> We are not providing correspondence such as transmittal letters, legal briefs filed, appellate briefs filed and various correspondence concerning scheduling, filing, sealing, redacting and unsealing of briefs and other court documents regarding litigation.

<sup>3</sup> I note that Ms. Wilson's employment status was classified but has since been declassified so that we may now confirm such status. In any event, we are not aware of any documents in our possession stating that Ms. Wilson's affiliation with the CIA was not classified at the relevant times.

Mr. Libby is not charged with a violation of statutes prohibiting the disclosure of classified information.

(D) and (E): We do not agree that any documents indicating that any reporter heard or suspected prior to July 14, 2003, that Ms. Wilson worked at the CIA constitutes Brady material but in any event incorporate our earlier response on this issue.

(F): We do not agree that any time witnesses disagree on facts that you are entitled to all documents so indicating in advance. We are aware of our Brady and Giglio obligations regarding witnesses and will comply with those obligations.

(G): We do not agree that all documents reflecting favorably on Mr. Libby's character or reputation for truthfulness or reflecting his propensity to comply with laws, regulations and nondisclosure agreements or of assuring that others complied with those regulations constitute Brady material (nor that such documents could be easily defined) as prior instances of non-criminal conduct are not considered exculpatory.

(H): Your request for Giglio impeachment material is premature and over broad. You will receive such material for Government witnesses, not for "potential" Government witnesses (however that term is defined). Moreover, the scope of records you seek is far beyond the scope of what is required. By way of illustrative (but not exhaustive) example, you seek all documents relating to any juvenile arrest of any potential government witness in a case where there will be no witnesses where any such arrest would be remotely recent or relevant to the trial.

Other requests:

There have been no search warrants executed and no communications intercepted pursuant to Title III at the direction of the prosecution team during the course of this investigation.

At this time we do not intend to offer any evidence of "other crimes" pursuant to Rule 404(b). As we discussed during our telephone conversation, Mr. Libby testified in the grand jury that he had contact with reporters in which he disclosed the content of the National Intelligence Estimate ("NIE") to such reporters in the course of his interaction with reporters in June and July 2003 (and caused at least one other government official to discuss the NIE with the media in July 2003). We also note that it is our understanding that Mr. Libby testified that he was authorized to disclose information about the NIE to the press by his superiors. We expect that such conduct will be the subject of proof at trial in that we intend to introduce Libby's grand jury transcript in evidence and Mr. Libby has testified that the purpose of his July 8 meeting with Ms. Miller was to transmit information concerning the NIE. Our anticipated basis for offering such evidence is that such facts are inextricably intertwined with the narrative of the events of spring 2003, as Libby's testimony itself makes plain. At this time, we do not intend to offer the evidence pursuant to Rule 404(b).

We are not obligated at this time to disclose impeachment material of Mr. Libby should he testify in his defense.

We are aware of no evidence pertinent to the charges against defendant Libby which has been destroyed. In an abundance of caution, we advise you that we have learned that not all email of the Office of Vice President and the Executive Office of President for certain time periods in 2003 was preserved through the normal archiving process on the White House computer system.

Should you have any questions or comments regarding any of the foregoing, or should you wish to discuss this matter generally, please do not hesitate to call me at the number listed above.

Very truly yours,
